Governor Announces Appointments to Commissions and Boards

Topeka – Kansas Governor Sam Brownback today announced recent appointments to boards and commissions.

“I appreciate the time and talents these Kansans have offered to serve the State of Kansas,” Governor Brownback said. “Their dedication is part of what makes Kansas a great place to live.”

The governor’s office is always looking for qualified, interested Kansans to serve the state on commissions and boards in their areas of expertise. If you are interested in serving on a commission or board, please visit <http://governor.ks.gov/serving-kansans/office-of-appointments>.

Kansas Real Estate Commission

The Commission consists of five members appointed by the Governor: one from each of the four congressional districts and one member at large. At least three members shall have been real estate brokers for five years and at least one member shall have never engaged in business as a real estate broker and shall not be so engaged while serving on the Commission. Each member is appointed for a four-year term.

- Sue Wenger, Mulvane, is being appointed to a four year term. Ms. Wenger has been a licensed real estate agent in the state of Kansas since 1979. She is on the Board of Directors of the Kansas Association of Realtors.
- Joseph Vaught, Kansas City, is being appointed to a four year term. Mr. Vaught has been a licensed real estate agent in Kansas and Missouri since 1998. He is on the Commercial Board of Directors for the Kansas City Regional Association of Realtors and on the Board of Directors of the Kansas Association of Realtors.
